The Catholic Church bases its teaching about the indissolubility of marriage on the teaching of Jesus Christ himself. Jesus said that remarriage after divorce is wrong, so that is what we believe (CCC 1614). However, if we take a closer look at our Church's teaching on this matter, things are not quite so simple.

Do We Contradict Jesus on Divorce and Remarriage?

While Church teaching recognizes the seriousness of divorce, it understands that: 1. There are situations in which civil divorce may be necessary: "If civil divorce remains the only possible way of ensuring certain legal rights, the care of the children, or the protection of inheritance, it can be tolerated and does not constitute a moral offense" (CCC 2383), and
