The Old Court House is a simple, but significant building. In 1928 John Rockefeller procured the Old Court House as part of his painstakingly detailed reconstruction and restoration of a dilapidated old Williamsburg. I was drawn to the "floating portico" and decided the Old Court would be the focus of my 3D architectural project. Sanborn ...

Appomattox Court House (McLean House on is the red building on the far left) We headed back to Raleigh, with a stop at Appomattox Court House National Historic Park. The GPS said the entire trip was about 200 miles but would take 4 hours, which seemed a bit conservative, but once we got on the roads, we found out why.
