Community organizing is characterized by the mobilizing of volunteers. Staff roles are limited to helping volunteers become effective, to guiding the learning of leaders through the process, and to helping create the mechanism for the group to advocate on their own behalf.

Community organizing almost always includes confrontation of some sort.

Activism Activism is an individual pursuit, when one person takes an action to make a difference. It is a great thing. But organizing is greater, because organizing gets other people to take action,
to work
