Patricia va a California. I have a soft spot in my heart for Blaine Ray's Patricia va a California. It's not the newest TPRS novel out there. The story is simple and a little clunky at times, the resolution comes too quickly, and the ending reads like an after-school special. There are no pictures, and the teacher's guides that are out there lean heavily on comprehension questions and true/false quizzes.

Patricia va a California was a little too simple for the level I'm reading at, which is why I only gave it four stars. Nothing to do with the book itself, but rather for my purposes. I believe these books to be wonderful tools for the beginning Spanish student. The stories are simple but well-written, and the vocabulary/phrases in the back ...
