I have mastered the art of it. The key part of being single is to own it. And boys, pay attention as well, you can own being single too. And I don't just mean embracing being single, I mean working it, loving it, showing off your singleness to the world, and making those lovey-dovey couples envy you.

There is a certain skill, adeptness, an art in being single in the age of instant gratification, and I am far from mastering it. I've always been an impatient rascal but I chalk it up to being charismatic. When I have a crush on someone, I have the wit and social skills of a golden retriever. I just like people.
