Well Never Be Apart

We'll Never Be Apart is quite the debut novel. From the very first words on the very first page, it had me hooked and even after finishing it, I'm not sure if it has quite let go of me yet. I'm still thinking about what a mad (pun intended) rollercoaster this was, filled with twists and turns, building up and up and up

So we'll never be apart
Don't you let it go to waste
When you walk away I can feel it in my bones, you don't love me anymore
Make it worth all of the pain
When you walk away, yeah [Verse 2:
Calum]

We'll Never Be Apart could have been saved with some tension but I never felt a sense of urgency from Alice to uncover the mystery. She finds herself in a mental hospital being charged with a crime that she knows in her heart she didn't commit, yet instead of attempting to work through her memories she becomes resigned to her plight and instead focuses her attention on her crush.
